I was obliged to get up as often as ten or twelve times during the night, and in five months I lost about 50 pounds in weight. I called a physician, who attended her about three months, when he left her worse than he found her. I then employed one of the best physicians I could find, who attended her for about nine menths, and while she was under his care she did not suffer quite as much pain; he finally gave her up and said, "her case was incurable" For, said he, "she has such a combination of complaints, that medicine given for one operates against some other of her difficulties."
